

July 11, 2014

Bill Nelson Scholarship Endowment Announces 2014 Recipients

The Bill Nelson Scholarship Endowment has awarded four scholarships, each in the amount of $2,500. The recipients for this year's award are: Ms. Angelica "Annie" Ariens of Jasper, IN; Ms. Mary Edith Collins of York, AL; Mr. Chase Herman of Nixa, MO; and Mr. Alex Wolowiecki of Hudson, OH.

Ms. Angelica "Annie" Ariens graduated from Jasper High School this year receiving distinction for being on the 4.0 high honor roll every semester. Annie will pursue a business degree from her chosen university. After graduation, Annie aspires to become a successful businesswoman. Annie's father, Peter, is employed by Stens Corporation.

Ms. Mary Edith Collins currently attends the University of Alabama as a Nursing Undergraduate student. Mary believes helping other people is her calling in life and aspires to enter the Nursing field after graduation. Mary Edith's father, Thomas, is employed at Rotary Corporation.

Mr. Chase Herman graduated from Nixa High School this year and intends on pursuing a degree at the Missouri University of Science and Technology. Chase plans on studying in the aerospace field and hopes to ultimately specialize in aerodynamics. Chase's father, Jack, is employed by CTP Transportation Products.

Mr. Alex Wolowiecki is currently an undergraduate student at Purdue University and hopes to use his college experience to enter the field of computer and information technology. Alex dreams of landing a job in Silicon Valley after graduation. Alex's father, Dennis, is employed by Husqvarna.