

July 17, 2015

Bill Nelson Scholarship Endowment Announces 2015 Recipients

The Bill Nelson Scholarship Endowment has awarded five scholarships, each in the amount of $2,500. The recipients for this year's award are: Mr. Benjamin Bowman and Mr. Jacob Eck, both of Springfield, MO; Mr. Mark Hoog of Lexington, SC; Mr. Alexander Kwok of Nashville, AR and Ms. Lindsey Wilkins of Republic, MO.

Mr. Benjamin Bowman currently attends the University of Missouri, Columbia studying for a degree in mechanical engineering. Benjamin's father, William, is employed by The Carlstar Group.

Mr. Jacob Eck graduated from Springfield Catholic High School this year and will attend Missouri University in the fall to study engineering. Jacob's father, Steven, is employed by The Carlstar Group.

Mr. Mark Hoog graduated from River Bluff High School this year and will attend Newberry College in the fall to pursue an environmental science major. Mark Hoog's father, John, is employed at Husqvarna.

Mr. Alexander Kwok currently attends the University of Arkansas where he is studying to obtain a degree in biophysical chemistry. Alexander's mother, Ronda, is employed by Husqvarna.

Ms. Lindsey Wilkins is an undergraduate student at Washington University in St. Louis where she is majoring in linguistics. Lindsey's mother, Teresa, is employed by The Carlstar Group.